THE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU
OF THE
Society of American Bacteriologists

- For the benefit both of employers seeking to fill vacancies, and of applicants desiring a position in the field of bacteriology, the Society of American Bacteriologists maintains an Employment Bureau. There is no charge for registering with the Bureau, but applicants for positions agree to send the bureau a small per cent of their salary for the first three months, viz., 3% if the applicant is a member of the Society, and 6% if a non-member. Funds received in this manner are used to defray actual operating expenses of the bureau on a non-profit basis, and any excess sums are transferred to the Society for the support and enlargement of its publications, research fellowships, culture collection, and other activities.
- Positions filled through the bureau include those of Research Bacteriologist, Agricultural Bacteriologist, Teaching Bacteriologist, Medical Bacteriologist, Industrial Microbiologist, Laboratory Technician, and Hospital Technician.
- Under present conditions, causing frequent changes, the Bureau is exerting added effort to fill vacancies. All inquiries are given prompt and careful attention. Address communications to:
